If you have scheduled your own air and your flights are delayed, or if for any reason you are prevented from joining the tour on the scheduled departure date and time, or if you choose to leave the tour early, we cannot provide a full or partial refund or credit toward a future tour. The Museum of Idaho reserves the right to cancel any tour due to low enrollment and when a U.S. Department of State Travel Warning is issued for the destination.

Air Service

Tour rates are based in part on economy-class airfare between Johannesburg, South Africa, and Beira, Mozambique. International and domestic air schedules are subject to change at any time. If an air schedule requires an overnight stay in a gateway city, or otherwise because of a flight delay, the cost of the overnight will be at your expense.

Air Service/Tickets Purchased Independently of the Tour

International and domestic air schedules are subject to change at any time. As you will be making your own airline reservations between the United States and Johannesburg, we recommend that you do not purchase nonrefundable tickets or tickets with high fees for changes. We urge you to check airline cancellation fees before purchasing airline tickets since international departure times and flights can change. Neither the Museum of Idaho nor Gorongosa National park accepts liability for cancellation fees related to domestic or international airline tickets.

Travel Insurance

The Museum of Idaho recommends that travelers purchase travel insurance in the event of a cancellation or other unforeseen incident. Such insurance is not included in the tour.

Travel Documents and Information

Participants are responsible for obtaining any documents required for their participation in the tour, including a valid passport and Mozambican visa, which in turn requires vaccination certificates and other documents. If you are a U.S. citizen, we will send you the appropriate information after you make a reservation. Failure to obtain documents does not negate the terms and conditions, and any extra costs incurred for rerouting or delay due to travel without the necessary documents will be the participant's responsibility. If you are not a U.S. citizen, please contact your embassy or consulate to ensure you obtain the proper documentation.

For certain international departures, a passport valid for at least six months after the completion of your tour, and/or with at least six blank visa pages, is required for U.S. citizens. The U.S. Department of State no longer will add visa pages into U.S. passports. Applicants in need of additional pages in their valid passports must obtain a new passport. For more information on how or where to apply, please visit www.Travel.State.Gov/ApplyEarly or call the National Passport Information Center toll-free at 1-877-487-2778/1-888-874-7793 (TTY/TTD).

For more information about travel in South Africa and Mozambique, we strongly recommend the "Learn about your destination" section, including any relevant travel advisories and security alerts, on the U.S. Department of State travel website www.travel.state.gov. For medical information, we recommend contacting the Centers for Disease Control at (877) FYI-TRIP or www.cdc.gov/travel

Physical and Medical Considerations

To enjoy the travel experience, participants should be in good physical and mental health. All tours require an element of walking over uneven terrain. Participants should have sufficient stamina to keep pace with an active group of participants on long days of touring. If you have any questions about your ability to participate in a tour, please call us at 208-522-1400. Any physical condition, diet, or special request for accommodation must be identified when the registration is made.

Please be aware that health care standards, facilities, and services abroad may be different or even inadequate for treating certain health conditions. It is essential that you inform us in writing of any existing condition for which you may require medical attention or accommodation during the tour. We will make reasonable efforts to accommodate the needs of our participants; however, services of a personal nature cannot be expected or guaranteed. By forwarding the deposit for pre-registration or registration in full, you affirm that you do not have any physical or other limitations that would create a hazard for yourself or other participants or would require adjustments to the tour for other participants.

Itinerary or Program Modifications

The Museum of Idaho and Gorongosa National Park strive for excellent tour itineraries and their features. If improvements can be made, or unforeseen circumstances beyond our control make changes necessary, at our sole discretion, we reserve the right to vary itineraries and to substitute elements of the tour. These elements include, but are not limited to: hotels, staff, itinerary changes, speakers, experts, places visited, and services for any stated in the itinerary. Every effort will be made to carry out the tour as planned, but alterations may still occur after the final itinerary has been sent to you.

Hotel Accommodations

The Museum of Idaho and Gorongosa National Park have chosen accommodations based on a combination of location, service, atmosphere, and price.

Singles and Roommates

Accommodations in Gorongosa National Park are reserved according to the participants' preference with respect to single or double occupancy, and we will do our best to preserve the same preferences where other accommodations are required, such as in Johannesburg. If you are traveling alone and wish to share a room/cabin, we will do our best to find someone of the same gender and smoking preference to share with you. If you are matched with a non-smoking roommate, it is mutually agreed that you cannot smoke in your hotel room/cabin. Please note that the single rooms in many foreign hotels may be smaller than those to which you are accustomed.

Children

This trip is designed for adults, although it may be suitable for children 14 and older. Regardless of age, children must pay full price unless otherwise noted. Moreover, a parent or guardian must accompany those under 18.

Special Travel Arrangements

Participants may wish to extend their stay in the hotel in Johannesburg either before or after the tour. Our tour operator will work with you on these arrangements, dependent upon space availability.

Should you decide not to participate in certain parts of the tour or use certain goods included in the tour, no refunds will be made for those unused parts of the tour or goods.

Photography and Video

Participants on tour may be photographed or recorded (audio and video) for the educational and promotional purposes of the Museum of Idaho and Gorongosa National Park. This content may be used in marketing publications and posted on websites to promote these institutions without compensation to the participant. Participants who prefer that their name, voice and/or image not be used must notify us in writing prior to the beginning of the tour.

Smoking Policy

For the comfort of all participants, we ask that there be no smoking during group activities. Some areas may not allow smoking anywhere on the property.
